

I am opposed to elimination of Morse Code testing for Amateur Radio HF frequency priveleges. Morse Code operating capability remains an important asset for communications using minimal equipment and in adverse conditions.